Photo Stories

Create snapshots of your favourite memories or make one a day to document how you're social distancing and string them together for a unique photo story of your life.

Materials:

- Cardstock/white paper
- Pencil
- Pencil Crayons/Marker/Crayons
- Scrapbook Paper/Construction Paper
- Scissors
- Glue Stick
- Hole Punch
- Yarn/String

Step 1:

Cut your paper into quarters. On each quarter draw out your chosen memory using a pencil. Depending on the story you're telling you could draw the board game you've been playing, a place you travelled or your favourite COVID snack.

Step 2:

Once you are happy with your drawing, use markers, pencil crayons or crayons to colour it in and bring your picture to life.

Step 3:

Take your piece of construction paper/scrapbook paper and cut out a frame for your drawing. If you want it to be like a polaroid photo, it would have a wider bottom and then evenly sized sides and top.

Step 4:

Glue the frame on top of your picture so it looks like a colourful polaroid picture! Repeat for as many photos you'd like to put in your story.

Step 5:

Once you have drawn all your polaroid pictures, punch a hole in the corner of each of your polaroids.

Step 6:

Tie each frame to a large piece of yarn/string to make a garland of your memories.
