Captured Moments

Today is all about moments, they can be from your life while staying safe at home or simply your favourite memories. Use your imagination as you create captured moments.

Materials:

- Construction Paper/Scrapbook Paper
- White Printer Paper
- Pencil
- Ruler
- Scissors
- Glue Stick
- Markers/Pencil Crayons/Crayons
- Ruler

This activity is provided to you by:

Step 1:

Use a ruler and pencil to measure out a square (approx. 15 cm by 15 cm) on a piece of construction paper and cut it out rounding off the corners.

Step 2:

Using other colours or patterns of paper, draw and cut out a large rectangle shape (approx. 8 cm x 14 cm), a circle (approx. 10 cm in diameter), a small square, a small oval and small rectangle.

Step 3:

Use markers/pencil crayons/crayons to decorate the pieces as you would like.

Step 4:

Once all pieces are decorated, glue them onto your square shape. Start with the large rectangle, close to the bottom, the circle on top, and the other shapes in the top corners, like the flash and shutter button on a camera.

Step 5:

Use your ruler to draw a line in the centre of your camera approx. 10 cm then cut along the line.

Step 6:

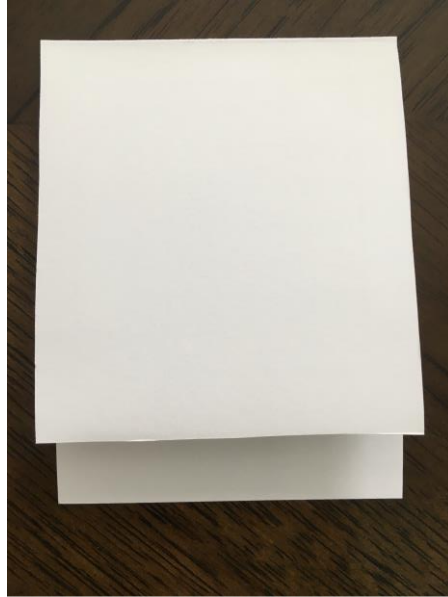

Cut your piece of white paper into thirds as shown below.

This activity is provided to you by:

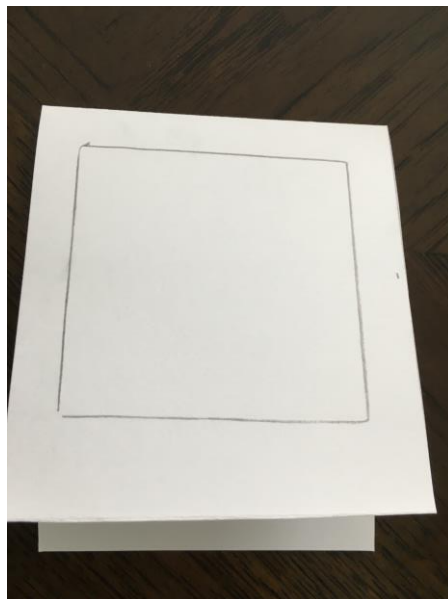

Step 7:

Fold each third a little less than in half so there is approx. 2 cm more on the back piece than the front.

Step 8:

Draw a square centred on the top piece of your paper and outline it in black marker.

This activity is provided to you by:

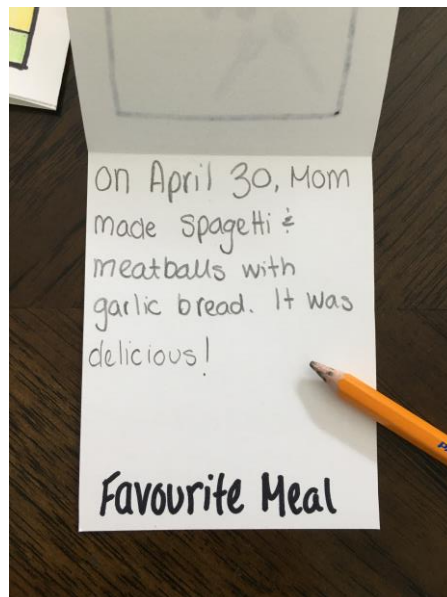

Step 9:

Write your moment, memory, favourite thing on the bottom of the bottom piece of your paper and draw a picture of it inside the square.

Step 10:

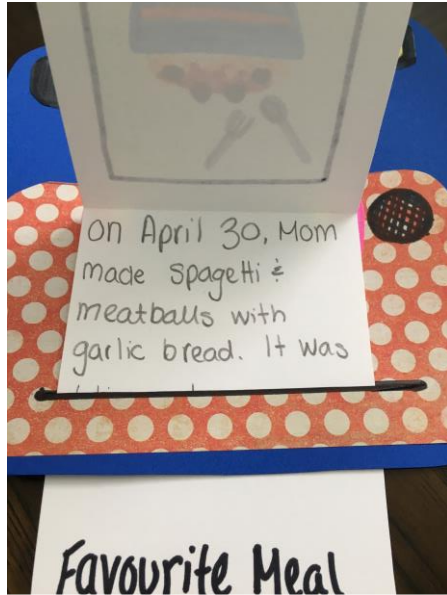

On the inside of your paper write a little story about the moment you chose to draw.

This activity is provided to you by:

Step 11:

Slide your finished paper through the slit in your camera to capture the moment. You can change images whenever you would like to remember a different one.
