Abstract by Chance

Take a chance and let the dice tell you what elements to add as you create your own abstract artwork.

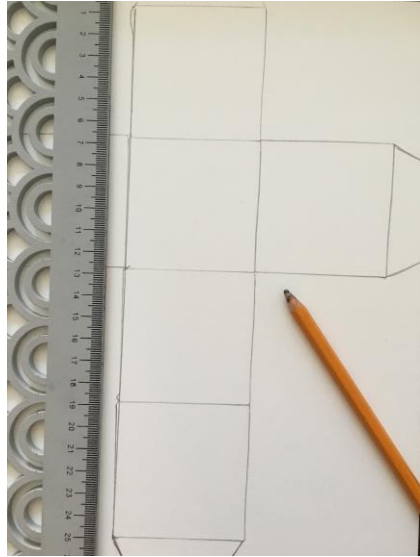

Materials:

- Paper
- Pencil
- Scissors
- Glue Stick/Tape
- Pencil Crayons/Markers/Crayons

This activity is provided to you by:

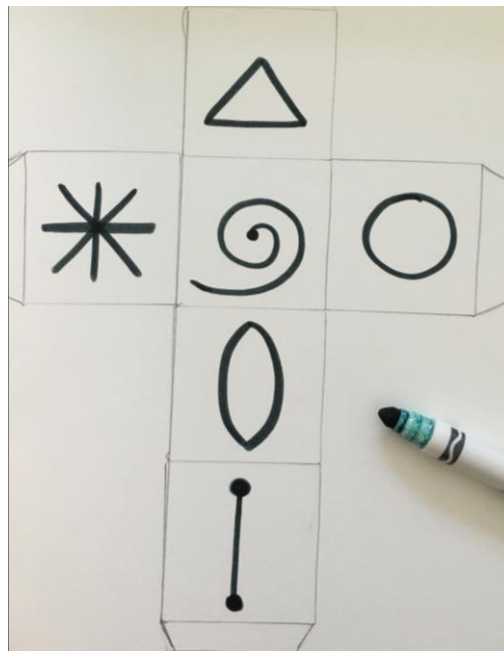

Step 1:

Either print the net for a cube at the end of this document or use a ruler to draw your own.

Step 2:

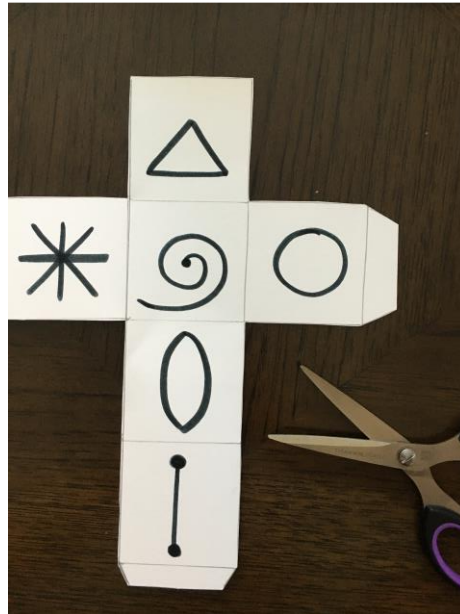

Once complete, draw a simple shape or element in each square.

Step 3:

Cut along the outside lines of your net.

Step 4:

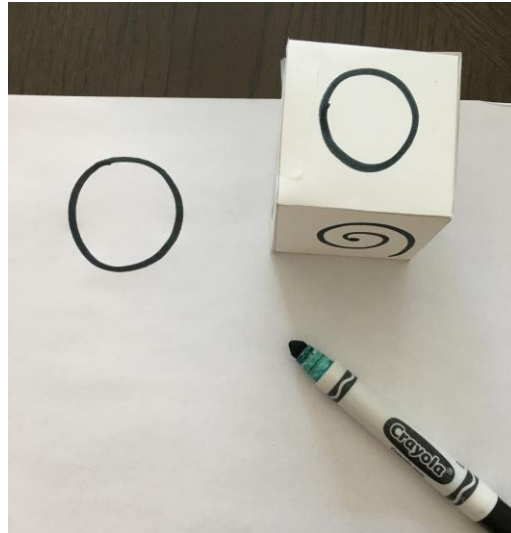

Fold along each line to turn your net into a cube with your drawn shapes on the outside. Use a glue stick or tape to hold it in place.

Step 5:

Once your cube is assembled, roll it and draw the shape/element it lands on on your paper.

Step 6:

Continue to roll your cube and draw each element that it lands on. As you draw the element, combine them together to create an abstract collection of shapes and patterns.
