PAMA ADVISORY BOARD

Sharifa Riley (she/they) is a Museum and Culture specialist. Her work spans over an eight year period, where she has worked in a variety of positions. Sharifa began her career in developing educational programming for youth, children and families, and has recently taken on more collection management initiatives and independent curatorial projects. Sharifa has curated exhibitions for BAND (Black Artists' Network In Dialogue) Gallery, the Erland Lee (Museum) Home, and York University.

Sharifa's passion for the museum and culture sector has allowed her to broaden the minds of all those she comes in contact with. She is a determined and creative individual, and is looking forward to many years of helping people discover what their community has to offer.

Sharifa Riley is a graduate from the University of Ottawa (B.A.), Sir Sandford Fleming College (Post Graduate), and York University (M.A.). She is currently working as a Community Engagement and Marketing Coordinator at Glanbrook Community Services.
