PAMA ADVISORY BOARD

Brandon Corazza is a graduate of the University of Guelph (Master of Art History and Visual Culture) and the University of Toronto (BA, Art History). Although his research focused on European Art of the Middle Ages, he has also studied a variety of artistic practices including Canada's Indigenous Peoples and the arts of Africa and its diaspora.

Brandon has a vested interest in collection management and museum curation and, over the years, has had a number of opportunities in other galleries and museums.

Born and raised in Brampton, Brandon is now focused on bringing his skills and knowledge into his own community.
