PAMA ADVISORY BOARD

Gagan Battu is a middle school French teacher with the Peel District School Board. She graduated from York University with an arts degree in French Studies and a degree in education. Her role as an educator allows her to encourage creative expression and growth within her students. Gagan's passion for community involvement is intertwined with her profession, as her work with students often extends into community initiatives such as food drives, concerts, fundraisers, etc. She continues to seek opportunities to bridge the school and outside communities together. Gagan is also an active member of the Sikh Heritage Month committee. She works with committee members to curate authentic events and exhibits that are rich in arts and culture within the city of Brampton.
